VALENTINES DAY WITHOUT THE USHY GUSHY

Save the Date: Shot Through the Heart Hill Library offers an alternative Valentine's Day experience

January 18, 2012, SAINT PAUL, MN — The James J. Hill Library, a hot spot for researchers and brides, is giving the rest of us an opportunity to party at the Library! In an attempt to appeal to those fatigued by the heart-shaped-box-candlelight-dinner-and-a-dozen-roses, the Hill Library is throwing a Valentine's Day party that pokes fun at the Hallmark holiday. From 7- 11 pm on February 14, guests can enjoy a live DJ, themed food sampling (think "Jerk" Chicken and broken heart cookies), and cocktails. A large screen in the library will be playing Fatal Attraction and The Break-Up as the ultimate party backdrop. Large photos of couples that "didn't make it" (Brad Pitt and Jennifer Aniston, Sonny and Cher, Elizabeth Taylor and....well...there are many options here...) will be on display throughout the dramatic, historic venue. For tickets or more information, visit www.jjhill.org.

James J. Hill Library offers free business resources and is considered one of the most comprehensive business libraries in the country. The library is also a well-known wedding venue for couples wanting to add a unique, but traditional look to their big day.

The James J. Hill Reference Library has awed and inspired visitors with its stunning architecture since it opened to the public in 1921. Constructed of Tennessee marble and Minnesota sandstone, it is a living monument to "the Empire Builder," James J. Hill, and a beloved landmark situated on one of the most beautiful urban parks in the country, Rice Park, in the heart of downtown Saint Paul. The library is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and is considered one of the best examples of Beaux Arts architecture in Minnesota.
